A sight to behold.

With the newly installed SF-260 M Nr 632 aircraft donated by the Philippine Air Force to the Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation (MSEUF), July 13, passers-by cannot help but gaze at the installation.

The aircraft, one of the 32 SF-260 M used as aerobatics and military trainer planes at the 100th Training Wing at Fernando Air Base in Lipa City since 1973.

MSEUF Chairman Wilfrido L. Enverga forwarded a request to PAF through Lt. Colonel Jeffrey F. Delgado to donate one unserviceable aircraft for display at the Open Air Museum along Enverga Boulevard.

The Air Logistics Command through Deputy A-4 Col. Jesus Nelson B. Morales identified an SF-260 Nr 632 from the Air Educational and Training Command (AETC) disposal yard as the possible aircraft for donation to MSEUF. The Office of the Assistant Chief for Logistics, (OA-4) Colonel Rene Raoul DL. Honasan prepared a Conditional Deed of Donation that was approved by Commanding General Lt. General Edgar R. Fallorina, PAF on Dec. 14, 2015.

The 410th MW Restoration Team headed by Captain Rhedentor L. Abon, PAF from Clark Air Base completed the restoration of the aircraft on Jan. 20, 2016. On April 5, 2016, the Chief of Air Staff Brigadier General Rozzano D. Briguez, AFP cleared and endorsed the Deed of Donation to the Secretary of National Defense Voltaire Gazmin and subsequently approved and signed it on May 11, 2016.

The formal turn-over of the donated aircraft sometime this year will coincide with the launching of the 70th Foundation Anniversary of MSEUF with the theme: Keep It Up Envergans.
MSEUF conducts mass training of Grade 11 teachers

In view of the implementation of the Senior High School (SHS) Program, the Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation (MSEUF) conducted the mass training for Grade 11 teachers from May 22 to June 8, 2016 in the different training centers in the campus.

As one of the official higher educational institution service provider-partners of the Department of Education (DepED) in Region IV-A CALABARZON, MSEUF handled the training for 22 days broken down as follows: General/Common Topics, Academic Tracks (Humanities, ABM, STEM) and Technology-Vocational-Livelihood Track.

Participants to this training were 284 teachers from the Division of Quezon, 40 teachers from the City Division of Lucena and 10 teachers from the City Division of Tayabas totaling 334.

Grade 11 teachers were oriented on the framework, learning standards, competencies and assessment of the Senior High School in the K to 12 Curriculum. Likewise, they trained on the pedagogies and teaching approaches in teaching Grade 11 students in the K to 12 Curriculum.

Supervised by the Dean of the College of Education Dr. Joselina T. Baylongo in coordination with the Vice President for Academics Dr. Benilda N. Villenas and the principal of the Basic Education Department of the University Reina V. Pasumbal, the faculty members with master’s degrees in their field of specialization provided the training kit with lesson plans based on the competencies anchored in the Grade 11 SHS program.

The University’s Board of Trustees is positive with its decision to approve the opening of the Senior High School Program this school-year.

In view of the implementation of the Senior High School (SHS) Program, the Manuel S. Enverga University Foundation (MSEUF) joined historic moment in Philippine education with the opening of its Senior High School (SHS) for SY 2016-2017.

Although continued pronouncement that K to 12 is a burden to both parents and students and low enrolment is expected, MSEUF registered a total of 1,350 Grade 11 students.

The University has envisioned SHS to be a proud Envergan college preparatory senior high school with the following program designed tracks and the number of students enrolled this school-year: Academic - Accountancy, Business and Management (ABM) Strand - 352 students; Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics Strand - 521 students; Humanities and Social Sciences (HUMSS) Strand - 154 students; General Academics (GAS) Strand - 78 students; Arts and Design Track - Arts Production (Visual Arts, Media Arts and Performing Arts (Music) Strand - 87 students; Sports Track - 25 students; Technical-Vocational and Livelihood (TVL) Track - Home Economics Strand - 46 students; and Technical-Vocational (TVL) Track - Information and Communications Technology (ICT) Strand - 87 students.

With the full implementation of the senior high school program, the MSEUF is doling-out PhP 3,000 subsidy to all students enrolled and enjoying the Education Voucher System (EVS) from the government whose annual family income is below PhP 300,000.
Thirty pupils from Elvira Razon Aranilla Elementary School (ERAES) with below normal weight-for-age are recipients of Tuloy-tuloy na Busog, Lusog, Talino Program to address a chronic lack of nutrition to some Grades 2 and 3 pupils in the said school.

ERAES in Brgy. Ibabang Dupay is one of the adopted schools of MSEUF under the Community Extension Services (CES) of the Community Relation Department (CRD) this SY 2016-2017.

With the Basic Education Department (BED) and the College of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences (CNAHS) as the implementing bodies, the feeding program will run for 120 days.

The program kicked-off on July 27, 2016 with no less than the grandson of the University President/COO Naila E. Leveriza, Franco Leveriza Oh who travelled all the way from Massachusetts, USA to volunteer in the commencement of the program.

The University through the CES coordinators with the cooperation of Mrs. Edith Huelva, principal from ERAES identified and screened the pupil beneficiaries for the program.

Franco assisted in the weighing of the children and distribution of the vitamins after the medical and dental check-up of the children to the assigned health practitioners.

The recipients were served lunch with their parents who were given lectures on responsible parenthood, nutritious food and proper hygiene needed by their children. Parents were also encouraged to monitor the condition of their children.

Meanwhile, MSEUF President and COO Naila E. Leveriza graced the occasion and thanked the school for the total support and cooperation in the feeding program. Assisted by her grandson Franco, the president donated 104 resource and reading materials in English, Science, Mathematics and History for the elementary pupils. Franco likewise donated one volleyball set for the physical activity of the pupils. He also conducted a Read-along activity by sharing short stories to the delight of the children.

Present during the launching were Mae Leveriza-Oh, daughter of Pres. Naila and mother of Franco; Prof. Milagrosa Lawas, CRD Director; Prof. Reina V. Pasumbal, MSEUF-BED Principal; Mr. Celso D. Jaballa, assistant vice president for external relations; Mr. Ismael Lagrason from CNAHS; EMRC personnel namely: Mr. Liberato Albacea, Ryan Balmaceda and John Irbin Renegado, and some MSEUF student volunteers.
